Middlesex County, to wit:

THE GRAND INQUEST for the State of New Jersey, and for the body of the County of Middlesex, upon their oath

PRESENT, That RAYMOND SCHNEIDER

late of the City of New Brunswick in the said County of Middlesex, on the ninth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty two, with force and arms, at the City of New Brunswick aforesaid, in the County aforesaid, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, did wilfully and corruptly swear falsely in and by his oath and affidavit made and taken for a lawful purpose, to wit, for the purpose of laying a foundation for a charge of murder against one Clifford Hayes, which said affidavit was taken before Anthony Silzer, a Notary Public duly authorized and commissioned under the laws of the State of New Jersey, as follows:-

"Hayes was in the lead several feet out in the field, to the crab apple tree. We were looking around the field for Pearl and her father. When we reached the tree Hayes said 'Here they are.' Hayes fired the shots on the left hand side of the crab apple tree. I seen flashes from the pistol. Hayes was on the left hand side and I was on the right hand side. In between Hayes and I was about eight feet. I seen people laying there, two, a man and woman. After he said, here they are, Hayes left the shot ride. Two and a pause and I heard two more quick, very quick. I could not tell whether one or two more. At that time I was about four feet from the bodies, two persons lying on the ground. I seen from where I was it was not Pearl but a woman lying on the ground had a hat. The man lying on the ground along side of her did not look like Bahmer for it seemed to be not the way Bahmer was dressed for Bahmer had a cap. This man had a slouch hat on or a panama. This man had a white shirt I could not tell whether it was striped or not. I turned out to De Russey Lane making an angle of eight feet on path. Turned arouns, did not see Hayes coming I went down De Russey Lane toward Easton Avenue. Hayes caught up to me about fifteen or twenty minutes later. Hayes says, I think its the wrong party. I did not make any remark to him."

Whereas in truth and in fact the said Hayes was not in the lead several feet out in the field to the crab apple tree, nor were the said Raymond Schneider and Clifford Hayes looking around the field for Pearl and her father, nor did they reach said tree, nor did the said Clifford Hayes say, 'Here they are.' Nor did the said Raymond Schneider see said Clifford Hayes fir the shots on the left hand side
